

The Gazette

Week of May 19 through 25, 2022

In celebration of Financial Literacy Month and National Library Week, and in support of getting one's financial health in shape, Briarcliff Manor-based URPG, a retirement planning firm, provided community funds to Friends of the Briarcliff Manor Public Library in April to add to the library's financial education collections for both children and adults. Joining Peter J. Gallagher, URPG Managing Director (third from left), were (from left) members of Friends of the Briarcliff Manor Public Library, Dara Mirsky and Sara Siegel, and library Staff Assistant Bill Townsend, Library Director Donna Pesce, Reference Librarian Shelley Glick and Library Clerk Lori DePaolo.
