URPG expands in Briarcliff

Unified Retirement Planning Group (URPG) has announced that it has expanded its office to include the entire building at 59 Sunset Drive in Briarcliff Manor.

"We are pleased URPG's growth has led to physically expanding our office," said Peter J. Gallagher, founder and managing director of URPG. "We are also proud to keep our roots in the Briarcliff and Ossining communities."

A 26-year financial industry professional, Mr. Gallagher, an Ossining native and resident of Briarcliff Manor, established URPG in 2016, a personal retirement planning firm focusing on the complex and changing retirement needs of clients primarily age 50 and over. Advisory services are offered through Commonwealth Financial Network.

The expansion was completed on September 1.

Also announced was the recent hiring of Catherine Maroney, a marketing and communications professional for 25 years, as manager of marketing for URPG. Ms. Maroney has held management positions in financial services and healthcare and is a graduate of Fordham University and Columbia University's Graduate School of Journalism.

"I look forward to serving our clients on a very high level with Catherine on our team," said Mr. Gallagher.
